Debby Savage is a USEF "S" Dressage Judge, as well as a USDF Gold and Silver medalist who has been actively involved in dressage, riding, teaching, and judging for over 25 years. Debby is also an approved Young Horse judge as well as USDF Region 2 Director serving on the Executive Board of USDF for the past 3 years. Her riding career started as a teenager riding western stock seat equitation, moving over to eventing, and finally specializing in dressage. Her primary dressage influences are based in the German system having trained with many top German masters through Grand Prix. She also has an extensive business background in marketing and advertising out of New York City. Now based in Mentor Ohio, she is on the faculty of Lake Erie College as Adjunct Professor, Instructor of Dressage in the Equine Studies program for the past several years.
